GOOD PROSPECTS FOR REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN THE SIXTH DISTRICT

Reports From Various Counties Indicate That All is Well.

Party Leaders in Caucus
Here Today—Ringing Enthusiasm.

That the prospects are brilliant for a glorious Republican victory in the Sixth Congressional district at the election this fall, was attested to in this city, this afternoon, when about fifty Republican party leaders, together with the District committee, met in caucus at the commissioners' room in the court house.

Reports as to the situation in all the counties of the district were received and they showed that everything is in the very best of shape, and that the Republicans would carry practically all of the counties in the district by large majorities. The hardest fights will be made in Hancock, Franklin and Shelby counties. In these counties the battle will be to the death and the Republican county organizations in these counties are going into the fight with a determination to win.

The meeting this afternoon was attended by nearly all of the prominent politicians of the district. Owen L. Carr, chairman of the district presided. The unanimous opinion of those present was that Congressman Watson will be re-elected in this campaign by a majority far greater than any he has had heretofore. The indications are that he will make a large gain in Hancock county, where he will pole at least 200 more votes this year.

The talks made by the various county chairmen and politicians showed that the people in the Sixth district are highly satisfied with the work of the Congress just closed and the attitude that the President has maintained on all questions. They also showed that there are many more Roosevelt Democrats in the district than formerly, and that there are many more Democrats in the Sixth who will not support William Jennings Bryan for President in 1908. The indications are that the Socialists in Wayne and Shelby counties especially, will, to a certain extent be found leaning toward the Republican party in this district, at the next election. The reports from over the district show that there is practically no dissatisfaction. Everything is harmonious, the laboring men are receiving big wages and have plenty of work and the farmers and business and professional men are making money.

During the meeting this afternoon, Congressman Watson delivered an address touching upon the work of Congress, conditions in the Sixth district and his plans for the campaign. He stated that Speaker Cannon will visit him in this city shortly, and that the Speaker will deliver two addresses in the district during the campaign.

Mr. Watson was followed by Hon. Francis T. Roots, of Connersville, who has his eye on the gubernatorial chair, and who, in a brilliant speech, moved to endorse Mr. Watson's tactics in the Congress just closed and to express confidence in him in the future. The motion was seconded and carried amid applause. Mr. Roots complimented Mr. Watson highly upon his record, stating that as a statesman and politician in the House of Representatives, he was second only to Speaker Cannon. He termed the Bryan wave which is sweeping the country as an unnatural one, but warned the party leaders against overconfidence, and urged them to greater vigor and earnestness in the approaching campaign. He closed by predicting victory in both local, State and National campaigns. Several times he was interrupted by applause.

Enthusiastic speeches were also made by Editor Stivers, of the Liberty Herald, and John Walker, Republican chairman of Shelby county.

The politicians came to this city at the request of District Chairman Carr and the invitation of Congressman Watson. They arrived on every train throughout the forenoon. Dinner was had at the Windsor hotel. Among those who attended the caucus were:

Allen Wiles, F. T. Roots and Miles K. Moffett, of Connersville; Elmer Bassett, Vernon Randall and Joan Walker, of Shelbyville; Frank D. Harger, of Indianapolis; J. A. Speckenhier, Charles W. Jordan, H. J. Homes, and A. M. Gardner, of Richmond; James H. Jones, John M. Morris, Thomas B. Millikin, George Forkner and Charles M. Christopher, of New Castle; O. R. Swaine, of Knightstown; M. E. Newhouse, W. W. Bonner, J. E. Caskey, J. P. Thompson and L. D. Braden and daughter, of Greensburg; A. H. Rockafellar, of Brookville; John L. Jackson and Walter A. Kaler, of St. Paul; William A. Hough and [Walter G. Bridges, of Greenfield; J. O. Lambert, of Middletown; C. W. Stivers and Milton Maxwell, of Liberty.

FARM HOUSE IS BURNED

The Home of George Forsythe Destroyed at 9 O'clock this Morning.

The farm residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Forsythe, living near Flatrock creek, about seven miles south of town, caught fire from a defective flue about 9 o'clock this morning. The fire gained such headway and had spread so rapidly that by the time the neighbors arrived everything had been destroyed except a pillow case and a chair. With the exception of the clothing they wore, those were the only articles the family saved. Mrs. Forsythe and children were at home when the fire started, but they were unable to summon help in time. The family has taken refuge with relatives and neighbors. The loss is said to have been about $3000, partially covered by insurance.

Special Election Results in Macadamized Roads by 34 Majority.

The special road election held Tuesday in Noble township resulted in a victory for macadamized roads north from Basney church on the Andersonville pike and from New Salem to the David Conner corner, by a majority of 34.

Charles F. Edgerton & Son will, on September 1st, open a home furnishing store in the two south rooms of the Masonic Temple. The wall which divides the two rooms will be removed. COMPANY TO BE ORGANIZED

Enlistments in Rushville
State Militia Company
Now Being Taken.

Military Training Will Be Beneficial to the Young Men of the City.

Out of the talk that has been indulged in among men of military experience, in the city, for the past few days, has grown a movement for the organization of a company of I. N. G. in this city.

A paper was started last night and the names of the young men who desire to enlist are being taken. A goodly number has already been secured.

It is the purpose to form a company of at least seventy-five men, apply for entrance into the State Guards, elect officers and be mustered into the service. It is the purpose to place a good reliable and honorable man with military experience at the head of the company and drill one night each week.

It will be necessary for the applicants for enlistment to pass a physical examination conducted by some local physician appointed by the Adjutant General and it will be necessary for all young men who enlist under twenty-one years of age, to secure the consent of their parents. It is understood that none will be accepted under eighteen years of age.

The State of Indiana has long wished for a company in Rushville, owing to the splendid facilities for getting the men to other towns quickly, and it is believed that no trouble will be experienced in getting the State to accept the proposed company.

The State of Indiana furnishes all the equipment for the men, including an armory, regulation blue and khaki uniforms, leggings, caps and hats, knapsacks, haversacks, canteens, guns and ammunition, bayonets, belts, cartridges, blankets and all camping equipment.

The company will have three commissioned officers, a captain and two lieutenants, besides the sergeants and corporals, who form the non-commissioned officers.

Under the new law all Indiana guardsmen are paid for drilling and are paid $1 per day for every day they are in camp.

There is no doubt that a militia company would be of great benefit to Rushville. The military training would be of great benefit to the young men and the organization would be of valuable assistance on special occasions. Connersville has had a company for the past three years and the military training has taken "the kinks" out of a large number of young men in that city.

During the next few days the enrollment paper will be circulated among the young men of the city and an effort will be made to enlist as many as possible.

ACCUSED POLICEMAN RESIGNS HIS OFFICE

Rather than face an investigation into his conduct by the police committee of the Shelbyville city council, Warren Haehl, one of the recently appointed patrolmen in that city, yesterday, resigned from the force. Owing to Haehl's prominence as an officer, a sensation developed out of charges that were preferred against him several days ago by Mrs. Lola Campbell. The woman alleged that the officer called her over the telephone and tried to make an engagement with her. Haehl stoutly denied the charge. In the light of his denial his resignation comes as a surprise.

Dr. Isadore Dyer, the noted New Orleans specialist in leprosy, says there are hundreds of people afflicted with that disease at large in America.

WILL HELP FARMER Grain Dealers are Urging a Law Compelling Roads to Supply Cars.

Every farmer in Indiana knows how often he has been "put off" by his local grain buyer because the latter could not get cars. At the mid-summer meeting of the Indiana Grain Dealers' Association at Indianapolis, will be adopted resolutions requesting the Indiana legislature to pass a reciprocal demurrage law at the next session. The grain dealers have on foot a movement to force the railroads to pay demurrage on cars which they are charged with failing to deliver within a reasonable time after they have been ordered, as an offset to the demurrage which dealers are now compelled to pay when they hold cars more than forty-eight hours.

ANOTHER BIG WHEAT YIELD

Charles Kenner of Noble Tp.
Secured 200 Bushels
From Four Acres.

The best yield of wheat reported in Rush county this year and a yield that is phenomenal is that reported by Charles B. Kenner, a prominent farmer, of Noble township. Mr. Kenner threshed 200 bushels of Rudy wheat from four acres of surveyed ground. Another field of nine acres, sowed in Rudy wheat, averaged a little over 42 bushels to the acre. No fertilizer whatever was used on either of the fields. Is there any one in the county that can beat this record?

INVESTIGATION IS DEMANDED

Paoli, Ind., July 11.—The state of Indiana by Auditor of State Warren Bigler has made a demand upon Thos. Taggart and Lee W. Sinclair, managers of the big watering-place hotels at French Lick Springs and West Baden, for a complete investigation of the companies and their books and affairs.

The demand was made by State Auditor Bigler by virtue of Section 29 of the voluntary association act of 1901, under which both hotel companies are organized. This section gives the state auditor the right to institute an investigation of associations at any time it is thought necessary or advisable, and also gives the auditor the right to examine under oath the officers and employees of the association.

The state by this move seeks to obtain information concerning the relations of the hotel companies and the gambling casinos which were raided under the direction of Attorney General Miller last week. It seeks to obtain information concerning the contracts that the companies made with the lessees, and who were the rightful lessees, and also to find whether the hotel companies let the leases on the percentage basis, whether they were straight annual leases or whether the money was turned in from the gambling tables and gamblers direct to the hotel companies' treasuries. Neither Mr. Taggart nor Mr. Sinclair raised any objection to the demand.

State Auditor Bigler demands the right to investigate the affairs of the two companies on the ground that he had information that the companies had not only violated their charter rights, but also had violated the laws of the state, among them the law against contributing in any way to the delinquency of children—in this case, by permitting them to frequent gambling institutions and to gamble—and the general laws against gambling and against keeping or permitting a gambling house.

This is the first proceeding that has ever been brought under the provision of the voluntary association act, which gives the state auditor the right to determine a concern. It will, therefore, aside from its connection with the state's crusade to stamp gambling out of West Baden and French Lick, be closely watched by all associations and attorneys.

EXPECT TO SHOW IT UP

Faulty Insurance Administration to be Exposed in Court.

Former Vice President and Trustee and Former Treasurer of Mutual Life on Rack.

New York, July 11.—Complaints have been served in the suits brought by the Mutual Life Insurance company against Robert S. Grannis, former vice president and trustee, and Walter R. Gillette, former treasurer and trustee of the company. It is alleged against Mr. Grannis that he omitted to scrutinize vouchers which were submitted to him and negligently and carelessly approved many vouchers which represented money paid for services not authorized. The damages suffered by the company because of these acts amounted, it is alleged, to $200,000. In another cause of action against Mr. Grannis it is charged that he participated in the making of payments out of the assets of the company aggregating the sum of $92,500 to defray the expenses of campaign contributions to political parties. Altogether five causes of action against Mr. Grannis are set forth and the total amount for which judgment is asked against him is $917,000, with interest. It is alleged that the former vice president participated in an arrangement by which money was taken out of the assets of the company to establish a so-called "confidential fund," which was expended for objects not within the corporate purposes of the company and beyond its lawful powers.

The complaint against Mr. Gillette alleges that he received large sums as to which no entries appear in the records; that he made expenditures out of these moneys the items of which are for the most part unknown to the plaintiffs; that he paid over about $8,000 alleged to be balance remaining in his hands, and that he never submitted an account of the expenditures made by him.

Suit for the recovery of large sums of money which were paid to his stationery firm through alleged erroneous vouchers has been begun against Ly-sander W. Lawrence by the Mutual Life Insurance company. It is believed that this suit may involve over $1,000,000.

HANLY GIVES OUT A HINT

The Governor Evidently Determined on Having Reduced Rates.

Indianapolis, July 11.—Governor Hanly is evidently determined to enact a two-cent fare law at the next session of the legislature. A representative of the Nickel Plate road informed the tax board that the two-cent fare law in Ohio had cut into the road's revenue, but it was still making some money.

"We have been hit hard by the Ohio law," he said.

"Yes, but you may soon have the same thing in Indiana," replied the governor.

"I understand so," said Carpenter, "but we have accepted the situation as gracefully as possible in Ohio."

"Railroads can make money on a two-cent fare if their officers will quit issuing passes to favorites and do business as it should be done," concluded the governor. John D. Wellman of Evansville asked the board to let the assessment of the Southern stand as was fixed last year. The board sent a letter making the same request. Colonel W. O. Johnson of Chicago appeared for the Chicago & Erie and asked for a slight reduction.

Servia is suffering from a plague of butterflies and the government has offered a reward for their extermination. The fields throughout the country are white instead of green because of the clouds of the insects.

FARMERS ORGANIZE Wholesale Horse Stealing and No Arrests are Becoming too Numerous.

Farmers about Elwood have at last become tired of having their horses stolen by wholesale and few of the animals recovered and but one thief caught. Recently there was an afternoon meeting of farmers interested in the matter at the city building in Elwood, to discuss the organization of an anti-horse thief society. Wade Windle, of Elwood, one of the victims, who is at the head of the movement, had billed the rural routes and sent out many circular letters. Several hundred farmers and town people having horses were in attendance and an association was formed. They will become members of the Anti-Horse Thief Detective Association of Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan and Illinois, and when a horse or other property is stolen from a member the thief will be caught and the property recovered if it takes year to do it.

CASE AGAINST MEAT DEALERS

The City of Indianapolis Going After Butchers Using Preservatives.

Indianapolis, July 11.—The first of the cases against the meat dealers at the city market charged with selling meat treated with preservatives began in the Criminal court this morning. Harry Matzke is the defendant. Charles S. Wiltzie is sitting as judge, having been appointed by Judge Alfred on application by the defendant for a change of judge.

The grand jury investigation of the ice trust, which was to have been begun today, has been postponed until next Monday, so that both Prosecutor Benedict and his deputy, Taylor Groninger, may give their attention to the trial of the Matzke case.

THE TIME IS ALMOST HERE

Hunting Season For Squirrel is Approaching—Woodcock Season Opens Sunday.

The official opening of the hunting season comes next Sunday, when the open season for woodcock begins, but probably this will not cause much of a stir, as the bird is not very plentiful in the State. If you can get to the Kankakee marshes you probably can get within gunshot of a few, but that is about the only place in the State where they can be found at present.

Protection offered them in past years, has increased the stock considerably, and there are said to be enough there to make it worth the while of a patient man to take the trip, but it unquestionably will take some digging to get at them.

On August 1st comes the real opening of the season, for on that date you can go after the squirrel, which are to be found in abundance in certain counties. Game seems to be divided up into sections in Indiana. Birds and fish are more plentiful in the northern half of the State, but if you want squirrel in plenty you want to go south of Indianapolis.

The squirrel belt proper is below a line drawn east and west through Johnson county and reaching to the Ohio river. There are all kinds of them down there, so many in fact that complaints have come to the game warden's office about the stringent way in which they are protected.

The salary of the mayor of New York is $15,000.

CITY IN NEED OF SEWERAGE

Dr. H. G. Linn, Secretary of Board of Health, Gives Opinion.

City in Danger from an Epidemic of Infectious Diseases.

The Board of Health is in the midst of an inspection to ascertain the exact sanitary conditions that exist in the city, and is resorting to some very strict measures in quite a number of places.

The Board has quite an unpleasant and tedious task before it, but it is determined to learn of every place where a cleaning up is needed and will make it their business to see that the law is obeyed.

In the investigation already conducted, some very bad and unhealthy places have been found and a strict enforcement was resorted to for sanitary conditions.

It is the purpose of the Board to get the city in a clean and healthy condition and wherever needed will order a cleaning.

The Board has the power to act in any measure for sanitary conditions, and if their orders are not obeyed the law with a heavy penalty will be resorted to.

The Board is going after those people who fail to cut their weeds and is seeing to it that all vaults, alleys and cellars are kept properly cleaned.

"Rushville has been very fortunate," said Dr. H. G. Linn, secretary of the Board, today, "in the past twenty years in not having any epidemics of infectious diseases, but owing to the condition of affairs now, we might look for an epidemic sooner or later, because there are a number of places in the city, especially cellars under some of the business houses in the downtown district—some of which have been cleaned and some of which have not—that are menace to the public health. The Board is doing its best to keep the city in a good sanitary condition, but it is almost impossible to have a good state of sanitation unless we have sewerage, some way in which the refuse may be carried away."

Dr. Linn is of the opinion that sewerage is needed far worse than any other thing at the present time. He believes that sewerage should be put in before the streets are improved so that it will be unnecessary to tear up the streets again.

MUCH PRISON TWINE IS USED

Rush County Farmers Tried
It During Harvest this Year.

Numerous Rush county farmers have this year purchased binder twine manufactured by the State of Indiana by the Michigan City prison, and have found the twine of excellent quality and very satisfactory.

The State is after the twine trust and has placed the price lower than the trust will sell it. However, only a large quantity will be sold at a time, so it is necessary for several farmers to get together in order to avail themselves of the price. Dealers expect that the trust will next year meet all the prices of the prison and go that institution some better, as labor does not cut so much figure in the manufacture of the articles. It is the machinery that makes the twine and few workmen are needed. If labor entered into the cost very much, the prison would have the trust beaten to a pulp within a short time.

As it is, the trust will not get to make the enormous profits in the business, as several state penal institutions over the country will be making twine next year.

RUSHVILLE, IND., JULY 11, 1906.

President Roosevelt presented Senator Beveridge with the pen with which he signed the meat packers' bill. This was in appreciation of the Indiana senator's efforts in behalf of that measure. Indiana members of both houses were conspicuous in many pleasing ways, during the recent session, and the people at home are proud of them.

One of the most interesting and important lessons to be taken from such recent legislation as the laws regulating railway, express and oil companies, the meat packers and food makers and other large corporate interests, is that these corporations may be regulated and absolutely controlled by the people, if the people will assert their right to govern. Both great parties have declared in platforms that regulation of wealth was possible and desirable. The Democratic party has talked the most and done the least. In fact no law regulating corporations has ever been put on our national statute books by the Democratic party, nor has that party availed itself of the courts with existing laws, although it has had control of both branches of government and had the opportunity to prove both its sincerity and its ability. In quite the opposite manner the Republican party has legislated more and more stringently as needs have required, and in the courts has proven over and over again the merits of its enactments by fines and prison sentences for those in high station who ignored anti-trust laws. These truths are matters of knowledge to every intelligent newspaper reader in the land and are eloquent arguments as to the comparative efficiency and inefficiency of the two political parties in handling the trust question, which is one of the most important problems of this day. Which record do you endorse? Which party has given the people relief? Which party is right on the trust question? Let the record of work done answer.

HE WANTS TO KNOW

Railroad Companies Must Show Governor Hanly a Thing or Two.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 11.—Governor Hanly caused the representatives of the railroad companies to sit up and take notice at yesterday's session of the state board of tax commissioners when he demanded of Dan Simms, attorney for the Wabash, that his company furnish the board with a list of the salaries received by the company's officials in order that it might get a better understanding of what constituted the company's operating expenses. Simms said that he would comply immediately. This is one of the few times when a demand has been made by the Indiana tax board for a salary list, and it is regarded as an indication that the governor and his associates intend to get an inside view of the railroad corporation's methods. John Billheimer, secretary of the board, said that the latter recently sent a circular to all the railroad companies containing a list of questions regarding their property. In their list was a demand for the salary of the officials, but not a single road complied. It is likely that the governor will call several of their representatives on the "green carpet" if the necessary information is not produced.

John W. Kern, principal attorney for Thomas Taggart and Lee Sinclair in the proceedings instituted against them by the state to appoint receivers for their hotel companies and to permanently enjoin them from permitting gambling on their premises, left last night for French Lick to prepare for their defense in the hearing at Paoli, Friday. Before his departure Kern took another sarcastic rap at the state's representatives in the crusade. He said that the prosecution of the cases against Taggart and Sinclair has become a travesty in view of the conditions now existing at French Lick and West Baden. He said that he had advised his clients to proceed as they had for the ejection of the gamblers instead of bringing criminal action as Governor Hanly and Attorney General Miller suggested. He pointed out some features of the situation that he regards as significant. He said that Ed Ballard, reputed proprietor of the casinos, has not been arrested, although a warrant was sworn out for him several days ago. "Ballard has been in the French Lick valley all the time since that warrant was sworn out," said Kern, "but Ballard is a Republican politician and no effort is being made to get him. Ballard is said to have contributed $5,000 to the Republican campaign fund two years ago and is reputed to be wealthy." Kern also declared that the only case against the gamblers that has been set down for trial is the one against a chore-boy named Bridgewater, who has no money to pay for his defense and who was not one of the principals around the casinos. There are nine affidavits pending against Bridgewater that were made out under the direction of Attorney General Miller. Kern said that this is an example of the methods the state's representatives are employing.

Vice President Fairbanks has gone to his big farm at Mansfield, Ill., to remain until Friday. He is making the trip in an automobile. The vice president always spends a portion of his summer vacations at his farm. This is the first time, however, that he ever attempted anything so strenuous as a long automobile trip. His farm consists of several thousand acres of the finest land in Illinois. The vice president is a practical farmer as well as a statesman and politician, although he is not able to give much attention to his lands. He has not completed his plans for the summer. After his return from Mansfield he will go over the mass of invitations he has for speeches and pick out those he can conveniently accept. He is now arranging for a Western trip, beginning the middle of August and lasting into September, during which he will deliver a number of addresses.

To Enforce New Law.

Washington, July 11.—Secretary Metcalf has named director S. N. D. North of the census bureau as the representative of the department of commerce and labor to assist in preparing regulations for the operation of the pure food law. The law will be jointly enforced by this department and the departments of agriculture and treasury, which have not yet named their representatives. It is understood that H. R. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry, will serve for the agricultural department.

Bryan Likes Things in Lunnun Town. London, July 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Bryan have temporarily abandoned their planned continental tour and have decided to remain in Great Britain until after the conference of the inter-parliamentary union, which opens here July 22. They will spend some time in Scotland, leaving London July 15. Invitations have been pouring in on Mr. Bryan and he and Mrs. Bryan are kept busy keeping engagements.

Woman Held to Answer.

Hamilton, O., July 11.—Sophia Garrett has been formally charged as an accessory to the murder of Robert Johnson, who was shot and killed by Charles Stitz, testimony developing that the woman quarreled with Johnson, after which she drew a revolver from her bosom, handing it to Stitz with the command, "get him." Stitz is still at large, and he is supposed to be hiding in Kentucky.

FRED A. SIMS

A Public Official Who Believes in Turning Over Interest on State Funds.

Fred A. Sims of Frankfort, who was appointed secretary of state on April 1, is the Republican nominee for election to that position. Mr. Sims was secretary of the Republican state committee during the last campaign and made a wide state acquaintance during that time of friends, who at every opportunity speak highly of his close attention to his duties, to his good nature and affable and obliging disposition, and to his honor and integrity. Fred A. Sims was born in Frankfort, Oct. 8, 1857, and most of his life has been spent in Clinton county. He attended the common and high schools of Frankfort, and then went into the law office of his father, a well-known member of the Clinton county bar. He studied in his father's office and was admitted to the bar in 1889. Two years later he took a place in the First National bank of Frankfort as bookkeeper. He found the banking business to his taste, but politics came up again and in 1894 he was elected mayor of Frankfort, in which position he served four years. Then he went back to the bank as assistant cashier, to which position he had been elected, and has held that position ever since. Mr. Sims is of that splendid type of Indiana business man in politics who takes his business principles into public life with him. He is the sort of man who will devote the best energies to the proper fulfilling of his public duties. As an instance of this may be cited the fact that when the time came for him to make his regular settlement with the state treasurer, he turned over with the moneys on hand all the accumulated interest—a plan endorsed by the late Republican state platform. When a newspaper man expressed surprise at this innovation, in his matter-of-fact, businesslike way Mr. Sims said:

"I cannot see why it is not right. A public office is just like a receivership or a trust. Any receiver or trustee who would handle large sums of private money would surely be expected to account for any interest that he might receive on such funds. I think the same rule should apply to a state officer and that the state should get all the revenue."

Horse breeders should get a station service book at the Republican office.

ABSOLUTE PROOF

Is Claimed of a Diabolical Order Emanating From St. Petersburg.

INSTRUCTIONS TO FIRE

It Is Alleged by Labor Group of Lower House That Police Are Instructed to Shoot Deputies.

Provincial Gatherings After Adjournment of Parliament to Be Turned into Shambles.

St. Petersburg, July 11.—The labor group in the lower house of parliament declare they have absolute proof that orders have been sent out from St. Petersburg to the police authorities in the province of Saratov to fire on gatherings addressed by members of parliament after the prorogation of that body. It is asserted that the orders instructed the police to single out the deputies and afterward make it appear that their shooting was accidental.

The sudden declaration of a full state of siege in Odessa province is said to be the direct consequence of the discovery of an elaborate Black Hundred conspiracy to inaugurate Jewish massacres in no fewer than four Jewish centers. The outbreaks were to occur at the same time, it is said.

Colossal Uprising in Sight.

Odessa, July 11.—Agrarian outrages and politico-industrial strikes occur daily and are alarmingly spreading in the southern provinces. The revolting peasantry are now evidently organized and led by professional propagandists who are clandestinely importing arms. A marshal of the nobility of Kherson expresses the firm conviction that the situation is inevitably and rapidly drifting to a colossal and calamitous uprising of the peasants against the land owners and that the movement will be actively supported by the disaffected soldiers.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Found No Defenders in Russian Parliamentary Discussion.

St. Petersburg, July 11.—The bill of the lower house of parliament providing for the abolition of the death penalty was taken up yesterday in the upper house, which was crowded. All the ministers were in attendance and in the galleries were many members of the lower house who came to watch the fate of their first measure. Up to recess time no voice had been raised in favor of capital punishment, all the speakers urging its elimination as a relic of barbarism, as having an insupportable effect in restraining crime and as opposed to the whole theory of the Russian code, with its otherwise mild punishments. Even former Senator Tagantoff, who was a member of the old council of ministers, held this view and urged the passage of the lower house bill, with the sole qualification that it was inapplicable to the army and navy for which, according to the fundamental law, parliament had no right to legislate.

Former Minister of Commerce Timiriazoff favored the same compromise to which, according to figures furnished to the press, sixty members of the Center party have already been converted, while fifteen are opposed to any action on the measure. After the general debate the bill probably will be referred to a committee.

The refusal of the Constitutional Democrats to participate, having rendered it impossible to form a coalition ministry, the emperor and court, in face of the rising spirit of revolution in the country and the constantly extending evidence of disaffection in the army, seem at last ready to turn to the Constitutional Democrats as the only means of pacifying the country. Negotiations looking to the formation of a ministry composed of Constitutional Democrats have been formally opened through the intermediary of former Minister of Agriculture Yermoloff, leader of the new Center party.

Street demonstrations and rioting are becoming more frequent in Moscow and St. Petersburg, which is regarded as being a bad sign. At Moscow 7,000 employees of the Prokharoff mill, who were at the forefront during the rioting there in December last, have gone out on strike, presenting a series of impossible demands, including pay for the time lost during the uprising, proving clearly that their demands are a mere pretext to stop work.

RUSSIAN ADMIRAL ACQUITTED

Rojevsky Was Not Responsible for Disgraceful Surrender.

Cronstadt, Russia, July 11.—Admiral Rojevsky, whose trial on the charge of surrendering to the enemy after the battle of the Sea of Japan began before a courtmartial here July 4, was acquitted after the court had deliberated for nearly ten hours. Four officers of the torpedo-boat destroyer Bedovi, who were placed on trial with the admiral, were found guilty of having premeditatedly surrendered the Bedovi, and all four were condemned to death by shooting. But on account of extenuating circumstances, the emperor will be requested to commute the sentences of the four officers to dismissal from the service and to be deprived of certain rights which they would otherwise enjoy. Admiral Rojevsky was acquitted on the ground that he was not in his full senses and therefore not responsible for what transpired at the time of the surrender.

Do the merchants who advertise all of the time that they will sell you goods "below cost" really mean it? Of course not. How could they and keep it up? Its not arithmetic. But you can understand, can you not, how that at this season of the year when summer business is nearly over that a legitimate store may wish to close out many lines they have bought too many of. Many merchants buy job lots and poorly made goods to spring on the people at this time of the year but look out for these fake sales. We would rather do without business than to give our patrons poor stuff. We are here to stay. So even at prices we confess are reduced and let us out about even we have left lots of "clothes of quality" at these prices: Suits $5.00 to $15.00, Pants $1.00 to $5.00.

OHIO MINERS STRIKE

They Claim That the Recent Wage Agreement is Not Lived Up To.

Athens, Ohio, July 11.—Ten thousand miners in the Hocking district have struck again after working less than two weeks, under the agreement made at Columbus in June.

The cause is that when loaders received their pay checks they found they were short 36-100ths of one cent per ton from the price which they were to receive under the Columbus agreement for cutters, loaders and day workers.

The matter was referred to the sub-district miners' officers, who will take the matter up with the operators. Mines in Hocking and Sunday Creek valleys will be idle until a settlement is made.

Going After Standard's Officers.

Cleveland, O., July 11.—The testimony produced yesterday before the United States grand jury which is investigating alleged violations of interstate commerce and anti-rebate laws with particular reference to the Standard Oil company was of such a nature that District Attorney Sullivan caused several additional subpoenas to be issued late in the day for well-known Standard Oil officials. One was issued for M. S. Vilas, treasurer and auditor of the Standard Oil company of Ohio. Another subpoena was issued today for F. B. Squire, vice president of the Standard Oil company of Ohio.

Hall first began the fun, pointing a revolver at Mitchell who was lying in bed, and Mitchell under the supposition that the pistol was unloaded, pointed it at Hall and pulled the trigger.

Victim of an Atrocious Assault.

Minneapolis, July 11.—Employees of the National hotel found the body of a woman believed to be Mrs. H. Johnson of Detroit, Mich., in her room, nearly burned to a crisp. When found she tried to tell the story of being assaulted, but was in such an exhausted condition that she was hurriedly sent to the hospital, but died as the ambulance reached the institution. It is believed she was attacked while resting in her room. Her skull had been fractured by a blow from a hammer.

Caught a Hot Potato.

Washington, July 11.—A cablegram received at the state department from Governor Magoon at Panama confirms in a measure the report that a Colombian warship had seized the captains of two British schooners at a point off the Colombian coast. The Defense Was Insanity.

BY THE WAYSIDE

"A Kansas girl graduate to whom had been assigned the theme 'Beyond the Alps Lies Italy,' wrote this essay: 'I do not care a cent whether Italy lies beyond the Alps or in Missouri. I do not expect to set the river on fire with my future career. I am glad that I have a very good education, but I am not going to misuse it by writing poetry or essays on the future woman. It will enable me to correct the grammar of any lover I may have, should he speak of 'dorgs' in my presence or 'seen a man.' It will also come in handy when I want to figure out how many pounds of soap a woman can get for three dozen eggs at the grocery. So I do not begrudge the time I passed in acquiring it. But my ambitions do not fly so high. I just want to marry a man who can lick anybody of his weight in the township, who can run an eighty acre farm and who has no female relatives to come around and try and boss the ranch. I will agree to cook dinners for him that won't send him to an early grave, lavish upon him a wholesome affection, and see that his razor has not been used to cut broom wires when he wants to shave. In view of this I do not care if I get a little rusty on the rule of three and kindred things as the years go by.'"
